Morning of Recollection – St. Elizabeth of the Trinity's prophetic message of "Let yourselves be loved" is timely and necessary. This is why Pope St. John Paul II, in his homily at her beautification in November 1984, spoke of her as "a brilliant witness to the joy of being rooted and grounded in love." "Letting ourselves be Loved" is allowing God to fill us up with Himself, to become like Himself so that we can offer Him joyfully to the world.
