

THE FILIOQUE

A Theological Debate with Fr. William Goldin & Dr. Tikhon Alexander Pino

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2025 • 7PM – 8:30PM • FREED THEATER

The Freed Theater is located on the lower level of the Cultural Center at Christ Cathedral

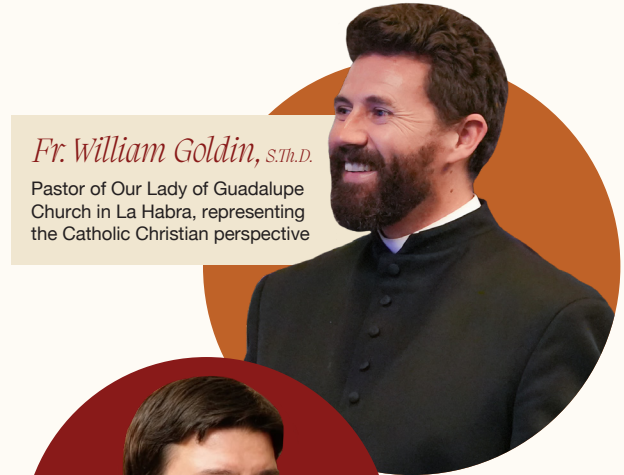

You are cordially invited to a thought-provoking theological debate on one of the most historically significant and theologically complex topics in Christian history: The Filioque Clause in the Nicene Creed.

This debate will bring together two distinguished voices—one from the Orthodox Christian tradition and one from the Catholic Christian tradition—to explore the origins, implications, and doctrinal differences surrounding the phrase “and the Son” (Filioque) as it relates to the procession of the Holy Spirit.

Join us for an evening of respectful dialogue, historical insight, and theological engagement. Whether you’re a student of theology, a member of the Christian community, or simply curious about Christian doctrine, this debate promises to deepen your understanding of a pivotal issue that has shaped the Christian East and West for over a millennium.

Registration is required. Seating is limited.

Scan the QR code and register by December 1, 2025. Learn more at rcbo.org/ministry/office-of-ecumenism-and-inter-religion/

Fr. William Goldin, S.M.D.

Pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in La Habra, representing the Catholic Christian perspective

Dr. Tikhon Alexander Pino, Ph.D.

Director of the Pappas Patristic Institute, Brookline, MA, representing the Orthodox Christian perspective

Christ Cathedral

13280 Chapman Ave.
Garden Grove, CA

Office of Ecumenism &
Inter-Religion